The 2019 CVS Health/NMF Pharm.D. Scholarship

About the Scholarship
Established in 2017 by CVS Health and National Medical Fellowships, this Scholarship aims to support African American students who are in financial need, are interested in pursuing a doctorate degree in pharmacy, and display a commitment to practicing within a community setting. The award provides a $2,500 scholarship to one (1) African American student majoring in pharmacy and enrolled in the professional program of an accredited college of pharmacy in the United States.

How to Apply
The application for this and all NMF programs is available online at www.nmf.fluidreview.com. The application deadline is October 14, 2019. Application components include:
- Proof of U.S. citizenship or Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) approval
- Two personal statements (500 - 1,000 words) and a brief biography (200 words)
- Two Letters of Recommendation
- A CV or résumé
- A current academic transcript
- An official Letter of Financial Aid, Student Aid Report, and National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) loan history

Meet Our 2018 Recipient
Albanna Mitchell is a member of the Class of 2021 at Wegmans School of Pharmacy at St. John Fisher College in New York. She has organized community outreach events as President-Elect of the Student National Pharmaceutical Association (SNPhA) at her school, working with translators to provide medication information to the refugee community. She also serves as a leader in the Pharmacy Student Government Association, and a member of the Campus Safety Committee, Primary Care Progress, and the American College of Clinical Pharmacy. Upon receiving her Pharm.D., Albanna plans to continue working to increase awareness of healthcare disparities within her community — and work diligently to improve health equity.

Our Mission
CVS Health is a pharmacy innovation company with a simple and clear purpose: helping people on their path to better health. National Medical Fellowships (NMF) is the only national organization solely dedicated to providing scholarships and support to medical and health professions students across all minority groups underrepresented in healthcare. The CVS Health/NMF Pharm.D. Scholarship enhances our on-going efforts to assist students with the dedication, capacity, and skills necessary to complete the pharmacy curriculum and make an impact in communities where their cultural competency and commitment to improving health disparities can be realized.

For more information, please visit www.nmfonline.org or contact NMF Scholarships & Programs Associate, Colleen McLellan: cmclellan@nmfonline.org / 504.309.7380, x203